

Lunenburg Historical Society - Research Request Form

The Lunenburg Historical Society maintains a research archive at the Historical Society Museum at 10 School Street near Lunenburg town center. Our collections cover Lunenburg's history from the early 18th century through present day; they include many records, manuscripts and photographs. Despite the size of our collections, our expertise goes beyond the confines of the building itself.

Please print this form and fill it out describing what you are researching. Then mail it to Lunenburg Historical Society, 10 School St. Lunenburg MA 01462. The more information you provide, the easier the search will be.
